

MOCK CSR EXAM, FORM D

THEORETICAL GRAMMAR, WORD USAGE, AND CAPITALIZATION

The questions in this section are composed of four sentences that are identical except for the two words or word groups in each that are underlined.

Directions: Select the sentence in which both the underlined words or word groups are used correctly.

- 1A. It is imperative that he come with Jason and me.
B. It is imperative that he come with Jason and I.
C. It is imperative that he comes with Jason and me.
D. It is imperative that he comes with Jason and I.
- 2A. He is able to do it better then me.
B. He is able to do it better then I.
C. He is able to do it better than I.
D. He is able to do it better than me.
- 3A. Between you and me, he better not try that again.
B. Between you and I, he better not try that again.
C. Between you and me, he had better not try that again.
D. Between you and I, he had better not try that again.
- 4A. I'd like to see if she is at her parents'.
B. I'd like to see whether she is at her parent's.
C. I'd like to see if she is at her parent's.
D. I'd like to see whether she is at her parents'.
- 5A. It had to be decided among the three after five week's delay in the shipment.
B. It had to be decided among the three after five weeks' delay in the shipment.
C. It had to be decided between the three after five week's delay in the shipment.
D. It had to be decided between the three after five weeks' delay in the shipment.
- 6A. Was it you who everyone expects are to do it for me?
B. Was it you whom everyone expects are to do it for me?
C. Was it you whom everyone expects is to do it for me?
D. Was it you who everyone expects is to do it for me?

- 7A. They intended to give it to whoever they deemed would do the better job between the office manager and his aide.
- B. They intended to give it to whoever they deemed would do the best job between the office manager and his aide.
- C. They intended to give it to whomever they deemed would do the better job between the office manager and his aide.
- D. They intended to give it to whomever they deemed would do the best job between the office manager and his aide.
- 8A. There is no question about who's ideas are very different from mine.
- B. There is no question about who's ideas are very different than mine.
- C. There is no question about whose ideas are very different than mine.
- D. There is no question about whose ideas are very different from mine.
- 9A. I intended to spend only a few minutes to see whether Maria and her could go with us.
- B. I only intended to spend a few minutes to see whether Maria and her could go with us.
- C. I intended to spend only a few minutes to see whether Maria and she could go with us.
- D. I only intended to spend a few minutes to see whether Maria and she could go with us.
- 10A. That one seemed to be broke even though most of them were okay.
- B. That one seemed to be broke even though most of them was okay.
- C. That one seemed to be broken even though most of them was okay.
- D. That one seemed to be broken even though most of them were okay.
- 11A. It went smoother the first night than on any other night that we spent with the Ortizes.
- B. It went smoother the first night than on any other night that we spent with the Ortiz's.
- C. It went more smoothly the first night than on any other that we spent with the Ortiz's.
- D. It went more smoothly the first night than on any other that we spent with the Ortizes.

- 12A. She had laid there too long and had trouble getting into a comfortable position.
- B. She had lain there too long and had trouble getting into a comfortable position.
- C. She had lain there too long and had trouble getting in to a comfortable position.
- D. She had laid there too long and had trouble getting in to a comfortable position.
- 13A. Either the aides or the boss has to take responsibility for getting Jim and you a copy.
- B. Either the aides or the boss have to take responsibility for getting Jim and you a copy.
- C. Either the aides or the boss has to take responsibility for getting you and Jim a copy.
- D. Either the aides or the boss have to take responsibility for getting you and Jim a copy.
- 14A. My preference when it comes to whether there are less helpers and assistants is the more hands, the better.
- B. My preference when it comes to whether there are fewer helpers and assistants is the more hands, the better.
- C. My preference when it comes to whether there are less helpers and assistants are the more hands, the better.
- D. My preference when it comes to whether there are fewer helpers and assistants are the more hands, the better.
- 15A. How many of them can we count on to make sure that her and her family and friends has what they need?
- B. How many of them can we count on to make sure that her and her family and friends have what they need?
- C. How many of them can we count on to make sure that she and her family and friends has what they need?
- D. How many of them can we count on to make sure that she and her family and friends have what they need?
- 16A. Every man and woman is going to have to choose which one of the candidates who are running should win.
- B. Every man and woman are going to have to choose which one of the candidates who are running should win.
- C. Every man and woman are going to have to choose which one of the candidates who is running should win.
- D. Every man and woman is going to have to choose which one of the candidates who is running should win.

- 17A. The number of calls we took for those two weeks is higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and I -- had expected.
- B. The number of calls we took for those two weeks is higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and me -- had expected.
- C. The number of calls we took for those two weeks are higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and I -- had expected.
- D. The number of calls we took for those two weeks are higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and me -- had expected.
- 18A. Every one of the girls who were there was called later.
- B. Everyone of the girls who were there were called later.
- C. Every one of the girls who were there were called later.
- D. Everyone of the girls who were there was called later.
- 19A. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and he -- are known to own thousands of dollar's worth of jewels.
- B. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and him -- are known to own thousands of dollar's worth of jewels.
- C. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and he -- are known to own thousands of dollars' worth of jewels.
- D. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and him -- are known to own thousands of dollars' worth of jewels.
- 20A. He demanded that she is there to see Bob and Jo's baby
- B. He demanded that she is there to see Bob's and Jo's baby.
- C. He demanded that she be there to see Bob and Jo's baby.
- D. He demanded that she be there to see Bob's and Jo's baby.

PROOFREADING FOR PUNCTUATION, SPELLING, AND WORD USAGE

This section consists of four-line cases. Each line in each case is a separate test item.

Read each case and determine whether each individual line in the case contains a punctuation error, a spelling error, a word usage error, or no error.

Capitalization, grammar, and hyphenation are not tested in this section.

Directions: Select the option that designates the type of error.

- A. Punctuation error: Commas, periods, question marks, quotes, dashes, apostrophes, semicolons, or colons that are used incorrectly, omitted, or misplaced.
- B. Spelling error: A word that is misspelled and forms no valid word.
Example: defendant (correct) vs. defendent (incorrect).
- C. Word usage error: A word that is spelled correctly but used incorrectly.
Example: principle/principal, affect/effect, flair/flare, rest/wrest, sometime/some time (limited to similar-sounding words).
- D. No error: The line contains no errors.

21 ___ I was eager for his "rein of terror," as we all
22 ___ termed it, to end. He needed to seperate himself
23 ___ from the situation. He was too close too involved
24 ___ to truly be impartial in his dealings with us.

25 ___ It was exhilerating to experience the thrill of the 26 ___ campaign, however, I was bitterly disappointed with 27 ___ the narrow victory that we eked out. Who knew the 28 ___ opposition was going to get such support so late.

29 ___ He was, I believe, given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation,
30 ___ but did not survive. It is always a tradegy for 31 ___ those involved in the incidence -- such a needless
32 ___ loss of life over such a stupid, unconscionable act.

33 ___ I was at the Harrises to see whether they had
34 ___ any further information on what had occurred?
35 ___ They were able to add little detail to the scraps of 36 ___ of information that I had gleaned from eyewitnesses.

37 ___ When he said to me, "What do you intend to do about 38 ___ this?" my answer was, "I intend to prosecute to the 39 ___ full extent of the law. He had pushed me beyond my 40 ___ ability to stomach the inadequate care he offered.

41 ___ What do you mean by, "the full force and effect of your 42 ___ office?" Do you mean to say that you finally intend to 43 ___ effect the changes we have been looking for at all
44 ___ levels of this ill-conceived poorly run operation.

45 ___ I called at 6:00, 6:15, 6:45, and 7:10, and I know
46 ___ Andrews, the COO, called a couple more times -- all
47 ___ to no avail. I felt she needed sometime, but this 48 ___ was ridiculous. She needed to get passed this.

49 ___ I am sure you are aware, Counsel, that your client
50 ___ has put himself in jeopardy by not appearing this 51 ___ morning, as ordered. He is not just in trouble with 52 ___ with probation, but also with the court system.

53 ___ There was not anymore need to have her on staff. She 54 ___ had completed the work which she had been hired to do.
55 ___ If her belief was that this was a permanent position,
56 ___ she was mistaken, she was misinformed.

57 ___ She was told she would have to forego the trip
58 ___ because of her condition. The infection was simply 59 ___ not under control and, if she decided to go with them,
60 ___ she would risk further damage to her system.

61 ___ Would you please turn to page 54, line 14 and read
62 ___ that answer to yourself? When you have finished, if 63 ___ you would let me know I want to ask you about the 64 ___ words "absolute committment" that are there.

65 ___ There were ever-increasing signs that he was in 66 ___ severe cardiac arrest, his pulse rate was twice
67 ___ what it should have been. He was, in my judgement,
68 ___ on the verge of a serious, life-threatening event.

69 ___ I had been at work a couple of hours, and when I saw
70 ___ her exiting the office, wondered what she was doing.
71 ___ Did she think everyone of us was blind? Did she think
72 ___ we wouldn't see her condition -- she was intoxicated.

73 ___ I am wondering whether you knew the bills were
74 ___ fake? I know you said you were suspicious the whole
75 ___ time. The issue of counterfeit bills, as far as you
76 ___ knew had never been an issue; correct?

77 ___ It is the principle reason he did not perform -- his 78 ___ lack of self-confidence. He could not get past the 79 ___ disaster that had occurred in his first attempt at 80 ___ public speaking. It is an exercise in futility for him.

VOCABULARY

Directions: Choose the word or phrase that is closest in meaning to the word in capital letters.

81. NULLIFY A) replace B) effectuate C) quash D) numb
82. RIBALD A) coarse B) jeering C) wrinkled D) common
83. SATURNINE A) earthly B) monstrous C) meteoric D) gloomy
84. PROVOCATIVE A) noisy B) pleading C) cranky D) stimulating
85. REPUGNANT A) homely B) impudent C) gross D) cranky
86. RECALCITRANT A) frivolous B) withdrawn C) needy D) unruly
87. WELTER A) jumble B) heat C) mire D) swelling
88. EMULATE A) imitate B) conform C) remember D) flow
89. AUSTERITY A) suffering B) severity C) poverty D) hostility
90. VERACITY A) hunger B) truthfulness C) lust D) acumen
91. RESCIND A) release B) pare C) annul D) return
92. JEOPARDY A) exile B) sorrow C) danger D) turmoil
93. EXACT A) insure B) criticize C) perform D) demand
94. VITIATE A) debase B) vindicate C) deny D) certify
95. PROFUNDITY A) depth B) vulgarity C) severity D) proclivity
96. LANGUISH A) relax B) enliven C) initiate D) pine
97. LARGESS A) enormity B) generosity C) anonymity D) quantity
98. LABYRINTH A) curiosity B) challenge C) maze D) setting
99. LAMENT A) celebrate B) rue C) squander D) ponder
100. IMMUTABLE A) absolute B) possible C) passive D) unreadable

MOCK CSR EXAM, FORM D (ANSWERS)

THEORETICAL GRAMMAR, WORD USAGE, AND CAPITALIZATION

The questions in this section are composed of four sentences that are identical except for the two words or word groups in each that are underlined.

Directions: Select the sentence in which both the underlined words or word groups are used correctly.

- 1A. It is imperative that he come with Jason and me.
B. It is imperative that he come with Jason and I.
C. It is imperative that he comes with Jason and me.
D. It is imperative that he comes with Jason and I.
- 2A. He is able to do it better then me.
B. He is able to do it better then I.
C. He is able to do it better than I.
D. He is able to do it better than me.
- 3A. Between you and me, he better not try that again.
B. Between you and I, he better not try that again.
C. Between you and me, he had better not try that again.
D. Between you and I, he had better not try that again.
- 4A. I'd like to see if she is at her parents'.
B. I'd like to see whether she is at her parent's.
C. I'd like to see if she is at her parent's.
D. I'd like to see whether she is at her parents'.
- 5A. It had to be decided among the three after five week's delay in the shipment.
B. It had to be decided among the three after five weeks' delay in the shipment.
C. It had to be decided between the three after five week's delay in the shipment.
D. It had to be decided between the three after five weeks' delay in the shipment.
- 6A. Was it you who everyone expects are to do it for me?
B. Was it you whom everyone expects are to do it for me?
C. Was it you whom everyone expects is to do it for me?
D. Was it you who everyone expects is to do it for me?

- 7A. They intended to give it to whoever they deemed would do the better job between the office manager and his aide.
- B. They intended to give it to whoever they deemed would do the best job between the office manager and his aide.
- C. They intended to give it to whomever they deemed would do the better job between the office manager and his aide.
- D. They intended to give it to whomever they deemed would do the best job between the office manager and his aide.
- 8A. There is no question about who's ideas are very different from mine.
- B. There is no question about who's ideas are very different than mine.
- C. There is no question about whose ideas are very different than mine.
- D. There is no question about whose ideas are very different from mine.
- 9A. I intended to spend only a few minutes to see whether Maria and her could go with us.
- B. I only intended to spend a few minutes to see whether Maria and her could go with us.
- C. I intended to spend only a few minutes to see whether Maria and she could go with us.
- D. I only intended to spend a few minutes to see whether Maria and she could go with us.
- 10A. That one seemed to be broke even though most of them were okay.
- B. That one seemed to be broke even though most of them was okay.
- C. That one seemed to be broken even though most of them was okay.
- D. That one seemed to be broken even though most of them were okay.
- 11A. It went smoother the first night than on any other night that we spent with the Ortizes.
- B. It went smoother the first night than on any other night that we spent with the Ortiz's.
- C. It went more smoothly the first night than on any other that we spent with the Ortiz's.
- D. It went more smoothly the first night than on any other that we spent with the Ortizes.

- 12A. She had laid there too long and had trouble getting into a comfortable position.
- B. She had lain there too long and had trouble getting into a comfortable position.
- C. She had lain there too long and had trouble getting in to a comfortable position.
- D. She had laid there too long and had trouble getting in to a comfortable position.
- 13A. Either the aides or the boss has to take responsibility for getting Jim and you a copy.
- B. Either the aides or the boss have to take responsibility for getting Jim and you a copy.
- C. Either the aides or the boss has to take responsibility for getting you and Jim a copy.
- D. Either the aides or the boss have to take responsibility for getting you and Jim a copy.
- 14A. My preference when it comes to whether there are less helpers and assistants is the more hands, the better.
- B. My preference when it comes to whether there are fewer helpers and assistants is the more hands, the better.
- C. My preference when it comes to whether there are less helpers and assistants are the more hands, the better.
- D. My preference when it comes to whether there are fewer helpers and assistants are the more hands, the better.
- 15A. How many of them can we count on to make sure that her and her family and friends has what they need?
- B. How many of them can we count on to make sure that her and her family and friends have what they need?
- C. How many of them can we count on to make sure that she and her family and friends has what they need?
- D. How many of them can we count on to make sure that she and her family and friends have what they need?
- 16A. Every man and woman is going to have to choose which one of the candidates who are running should win.
- B. Every man and woman are going to have to choose which one of the candidates who are running should win.
- C. Every man and woman are going to have to choose which one of the candidates who is running should win.
- D. Every man and woman is going to have to choose which one of the candidates who is running should win.

- 17A. The number of calls we took for those two weeks is higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and I -- had expected.
- B. The number of calls we took for those two weeks is higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and me -- had expected.
- C. The number of calls we took for those two weeks are higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and I -- had expected.
- D. The number of calls we took for those two weeks are higher than we -- Ray, Sue, and me -- had expected.
- 18A. Every one of the girls who were there was called later.
- B. Everyone of the girls who were there were called later.
- C. Every one of the girls who were there were called later.
- D. Everyone of the girls who were there was called later.
- 19A. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and he -- are known to own thousands of dollar's worth of jewels.
- B. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and him -- are known to own thousands of dollar's worth of jewels.
- C. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and he -- are known to own thousands of dollars' worth of jewels.
- D. The three men -- Davidson, Harris, and him -- are known to own thousands of dollars' worth of jewels.
- 20A. He demanded that she is there to see Bob and Jo's baby
- B. He demanded that she is there to see Bob's and Jo's baby.
- C. He demanded that she be there to see Bob and Jo's baby.
- D. He demanded that she be there to see Bob's and Jo's baby.

PROOFREADING FOR PUNCTUATION, SPELLING, AND WORD USAGE

This section consists of four-line cases. Each line in each case is a separate test item.

Read each case and determine whether each individual line in the case contains a punctuation error, a spelling error, a word usage error, or no error.

Capitalization, grammar, and hyphenation are not tested in this section.

Directions: Select the option that designates the type of error.

- A. Punctuation error: Commas, periods, question marks, quotes, dashes, apostrophes, semicolons, or colons that are used incorrectly, omitted, or misplaced.
- B. Spelling error: A word that is misspelled and forms no valid word.
Example: defendant (correct) vs. defendant (incorrect).
- C. Word usage error: A word that is spelled correctly but used incorrectly.
Example: principle/principal, affect/effect, flair/flare, rest/wrest, sometime/some time (limited to similar-sounding words).
- D. No error: The line contains no errors.

21 C I was eager for his "rein of terror," as we all
22 B termed it, to end. He needed to seperate himself
23 A from the situation. He was too close too involved
24 D to truly be impartial in his dealings with us.

25 B It was exhilerating to experience the thrill of the 26 A campaign, however, I was bitterly disappointed with 27 D the narrow victory that we eked out. Who knew the 28 A opposition was going to get such support so late.

29 A He was, I believe, given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation,
30 B but did not survive. It is always a tradegy for 31 C those involved in the incidence -- such a needless
32 D loss of life over such a stupid, unconscionable act.

33 A I was at the Harrises to see whether they had
34 A any further information on what had occurred?
35 D They were able to add little detail to the scraps of 36 B of information that I had gleaned from eyewitnesses.

37 D When he said to me, "What do you intend to do about 38 A this?" my answer was, "I intend to prosecute to the 39 A full extent of the law. He had pushed me beyond my 40 D ability to stomach the inadequate care he offered.

41 A What do you mean by, "the full force and effect of your 42 D office?" Do you mean to say that you finally intend to 43 D effect the changes we have been looking for at all
44 A levels of this ill-conceived poorly run operation.

45 A I called at 6:00, 6:15, 6:45, and 7:10, and I know
46 D Andrews, the COO, called a couple more times -- all
47 C to no avail. I felt she needed sometime, but this 48 C was ridiculous. She needed to get passed this.

49 D I am sure you are aware, Counsel, that your client
50 D has put himself in jeopardy by not appearing this 51 A morning, as ordered. He is not just in trouble with 52 A with probation, but also with the court system.

53 C There was not anymore need to have her on staff. She 54 D had completed the work which she had been hired to do.
55 D If her belief was that this was a permanent position,
56 A she was mistaken, she was misinformed.

57 C She was told she would have to forego the trip
58 D because of her condition. The infection was simply 59 A not under control and, if she decided to go with them,
60 D she would risk further damage to her system.

61 A Would you please turn to page 54, line 14 and read
62 A that answer to yourself? When you have finished, if 63 A you would let me know I want to ask you about the 64 B words "absolute committment" that are there.

65 _D_ There were ever-increasing signs that he was in 66 _A_ severe cardiac arrest, his pulse rate was twice
67 _B_ what it should have been. He was, in my judgement,
68 _B_ on the verge of a serious, life-threatening event.

69 _A_ I had been at work a couple of hours, and when I saw
70 _D_ her exiting the office, wondered what she was doing.
71 _C_ Did she think everyone of us was blind? Did she think
72 _A_ we wouldn't see her condition -- she was intoxicated.

73 _D_ I am wondering whether you knew the bills were
74 _A_ fake? I know you said you were suspicious the whole
75 _B_ time. The issue of counterfeit bills, as far as you
76 _A_ knew had never been an issue; correct?

77 _C_ It is the principle reason he did not perform -- his 78 _D_ lack of self-confidence. He could not get past the 79 _B_ disaster that had occurred in his first attempt at 80 _D_ public speaking. It is an exercise in futility for him.

VOCABULARY

Directions: Choose the word or phrase that is closest in meaning to the word in capital letters.

81. NULLIFY A) replace B) effectuate C) quash D) numb
82. RIBALD A) coarse B) jeering C) wrinkled D) common
83. SATURNINE A) earthly B) monstrous C) meteoric D) gloomy
84. PROVOCATIVE A) noisy B) pleading C) cranky D) stimulating
85. REPUGNANT A) homely B) impudent C) gross D) cranky
86. RECALCITRANT A) frivolous B) withdrawn C) needy D) unruly
87. WELTER A) jumble B) heat C) mire D) swelling
88. EMULATE A) imitate B) conform C) remember D) flow
89. AUSTERITY A) suffering B) severity C) poverty D) hostility
90. VERACITY A) hunger B) truthfulness C) lust D) acumen
91. RESCIND A) release B) pare C) annul D) return
92. JEOPARDY A) exile B) sorrow C) danger D) turmoil
93. EXACT A) insure B) criticize C) perform D) demand
94. VITIATE A) debase B) vindicate C) deny D) certify
95. PROFUNDITY A) depth B) vulgarity C) severity D) proclivity
96. LANGUISH A) relax B) enliven C) initiate D) pine
97. LARGESS A) enormity B) generosity C) anonymity D) quantity
98. LABYRINTH A) curiosity B) challenge C) maze D) setting
99. LAMENT A) celebrate B) rue C) squander D) ponder
100. IMMUTABLE A) absolute B) possible C) passive D) unreadable